

Treasury Department,

Secret Service Division,

Washington, D. C.,

January 23, 1894.

Hon. O. C. Bosbyshell,

Superintendent of U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

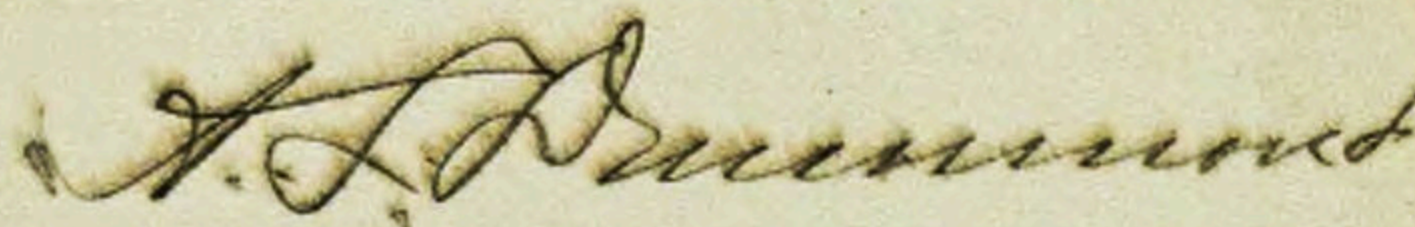

Sir:-

Your favor of the 22 inst., enclosing a communication from H. Cornelius, dated Peoria, Ills, Jan. 19, 1894, which refers to and encloses an impression of the head of Liberty as it appears upon the U. S. Standard Silver Dollar, is received.

In reply you have the thanks of this office for the interest shown in the matter and are informed that I will at once take steps to secure the die used by Mr. Cornelius in producing the Liberty head.

It appears to be a direct violation of law "Public Act 71" Section one,, a copy of which act I enclose you herewith.

Respectfully yours,

Chief.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 184

M.W.

Treasury Department,
Secret Service Division,
Washington, D.C.,
January 23, 1894

Hon. O.C. Bosbyshell,
Superintendent of U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir: -

Your favor of the 22 inst., enclosing a communication from H. Cornelius, dated Peoria, Ills., January 19, 1894, which refers to and encloses an impression of the head of Liberty as it appears upon the U.S. Standard Silver Dollar, is received.

In reply you have the thanks of this office for the interest shown in the matter and are informed that I will at once take steps to secure the die used by Mr. Cornelius in producing the Liberty head.

It appears to be a direct violation of law "Public Act 71" – Section one, a copy of which act I enclose you herewith.

Respectfully yours,
A.L. Drummond
Chief.